

Live2Africa Support that is Contributing to Mitigating the Impact of Covid-19 in Kenya

Participants at the Workshop on the State of One Health Implementation and Identification of Innovative Pilot Activities, 15 - 17 May 2018, Azure Hotel, Nairobi, Kenya

Kenya was represented by Dr. Tequero Abuom Okumu, Lecturer/One Health Focal Person Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, University of Nairobi; Dr Isaac Lekolool, Senior Veterinary Officer, Tourism and Wildlife, Kenya Wildlife; and Dr. Matthew Muturi, One Health Focal Point, Zoonoses Disease Unit (ZDU).

(Photo Credit: Live2Africa Project, AU-IBAR 2018)

Members of a multi-institutional Task Force at a Workshop held 21st to 23rd November 2019 in Mombasa Kenya to consult with and build the capacity of Members of the Committee on Delegated Legislation of the Kenya National Assembly towards strengthening the regulations for improved human health outcomes, organization of the industry and enhancing returns to investors in the industry

Members of the Dairy Regulations Task Force including the Managing Director Kenya Dairy Board Margaret Kibogy OGW, with the Chief Administrative Secretary Dr. Andrew Tuimur, and Director Livestock Production at the Ministry of Agriculture, Livestock, Fisheries and Cooperatives Kenya.

(Photo Credit: Kenya Dairy Board)

Chairperson of the Committee on Delegated Legislation Hon. Gladys Shollei contributes to the discussion during the Workshop held on 21st to 23rd November 2019 to Consult on and Finalize Review of Kenya Dairy Industry Regulations

(Photo Credit: Kenya Dairy Board)

Contributing 14% of Kenya's AGDP, and 4% of the GDP Kenya's dairy sector is critical for food and nutrition security, livelihoods, employment and industrial development. Private sector are key actors: Peter Ngaruiya, Executive Director East and Southern Africa Dairy Association (ESADA) presents the state of ESADA at an AU-IBAR/EU facilitated/ sponsored Workshop to develop a new ESADA Strategic Plan Workshop held on 17-19 October 2019 at the Lake Naivasha Resort, Kenya

Photo Credit: Carol Mburu, ESADA

Phillip Pyeko – Kenya Dairy Processors Association (KDPA), Addmore Waniwa – Zimbabwe Dairy Industry Trust (ZDIT), and Dominic Menjo – Food Security Advisor: Office of the Vice President of the Republic of Kenya at the East and Southern Africa Dairy Association (ESADA) Strategic Plan Development Meeting

Photo Credit: Carol Mburu, ESADA

The Assisted Reproductive Technologies Training in Naivasha Kenya in December 2019. Capacity building on the use of an ultrasound to detect pregnancy as a tool to enhance efficiency and improve incomes for Kenya's dairy farmers

Photo Credit: AU-IBAR 2019

Kenyans Fatuma Osman Ahmed, Managing Director Wajir Milk Traders, Wajir County, Christine M. Kalui – Mutua, Chairperson Nzau District Small Scale Farmers Forum Matiliku, Makueni County and Willimena Asekon Lokalei, Livelihoods and Agriculture Coordinator, CARITAS Lodwar (Diocese of Lodwar), Turkana County, were among 65 Women Executives from the African Women in Animal Resources Farming and Agri-business Network (AWARFA-N) who underwent a training on Resourcing, Negotiating and Utilizing Innovative Investment Finance and Insurance, held on 27th to 29th November in Naivasha Kenya. The Live2Africa Project is designing a Support Program to provide core support for selected women, who will be expected to mentor a network to stimulate growth among women in their value chains.

Photo Credit: Live2Africa Project, AU-IBAR